Description

Made By Hemp's Luxury CBD Massage Oil is hand-crafted with calming and rejuvenating herbal extracts for a premium full-body massage experience. This unique formulation is designed to soothe sore muscles, replenish nutrients in the skin, and relax the senses.

Our massage oil works by interacting with our body's own Endocannabinoid System \(ECS\). When this interaction takes place, many various benefits can be enjoyed, though it may vary from person to person. For more on how CBD products work with the skin, see our post: The ECS and Skin: How CBD Works Topically for more information.

CBD Massage

Most people have experienced a massage, but have you ever enjoyed a CBD massage? It's like a regular massage except for way better because of the added benefit of cannabidiol. You can now bring the benefits of a CBD massage home with our luxury massage oil. Of course, the Swedish masseuse is sold separately.

How to Use CBD Massage Oil

Dispense a small amount onto hands. Rub hands together, then massage into skin to help release tensions and deeply soothe muscles.
